

APPENDIX A

CRITERIA INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

PURPOSE

1. Awarded to recognise and motivate individuals who are still actively involved in EW and who have contributed significantly to EW and related efforts. Member must be a member of the AOC.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

1. The scope of this award is very wide as it covers all aspects of Electronic Warfare, from leadership, management, research, development and operational tactics and doctrine. It could include original and innovative ideas as well as longer term dedicated work that resulted in new or improved capabilities.

2. The award is an AOC Aardvark Silver Certificate and one year's AOC membership. The AOC membership will be added to the members running membership, extending it with an additional paid membership year, unless the member is already a life time member.

CRITERIA

3. The following is applicable:
- a. Nominee must be an active member of the AOC.
 - b. Nominee must be an RSA citizen.
 - c. The nominee must be nominated by an active AOC member.
 - d. The motivation must describe:
 - i. The incident(s) or activity(ies) resulting in the nomination in detail.
 - ii. It must provide relevant background information.
 - iii. The effort that the individual has put into the contribution he/she made.
 - iv. Description of the contribution as well as the impact and benefit to the EW community.

NOMINATIONS AND SELECTION PROCEDURES:

4. Nominations can take place any time of the year. The BoD can however prompt members to make nominations.

UPDATED 2013/03/04

5. The BoD will address nominations at board meetings when received.
6. A record of recipients must be kept as well as reason why the Certificate was awarded

